- On a separate sheet of paper explain why you are appealing? Below are common questions students need to answer to appeal for financial aid. Please answer the question(s) that address why you are appealing, be very specific in your answers.
 - Why did you not achieve the required credits and/or grade point average (GPA)?
Indicate what unforeseen or beyond your control circumstances occurred, providing appropriate documentation verifying your statements. Also, include what your plans are to prevent or correct the problem from happening again.
Check the box if your ability to meet satisfactory academic progress was impacted by the coronavirus (COVID-19) or the disruption to campus operations due to the coronavirus (COVID-19).
 - Why do you need to change your degree or certificate? Why do you need an additional degree or certificate?
Indicate how you will use this new degree or certificate to reach your educational/career goals.
 - Why do you need more time to complete your degree or certificate?
Indicate how you will use this time to complete your degree or certificate.
 - Why did you fail to register with selective service by your 26th birthday?
Indicate how you did not knowingly or willfully fail to register. Provide a status information letter from the Selective Service and a detailed letter regarding where you lived between the ages of 18-25 and why you did not register.
- Attach a copy of your degree audit for the degree or certificate you listed above.
To get a degree audit, go to www.centralia.edu. Click on Student Login at the top right hand corner, then click on Get your degree audit. You will need to know your student ID and your global student PIN (usually your six digit birth date, mmddyy).
- Attach a copy of your educational plan.
An educational plan is a quarter by quarter listing of the classes you plan to take in order to complete your degree or certificate.
- Check the box if you give the Financial Aid Office permission to email your appeal notification to you after your appeal is reviewed. Your appeal notification will be sent through USPS mail if you do not prefer to receive an email notification.
